Criticism Sunday Legislation.

"Present-Day Religious Persecution in the United States" is the title of an address to be made by Prof. C. S. Longacre, secretary of the Seventh-Day Adventist Religious Liberty Association and editor of the magazine Liberty, before the Washington Secular League at Pythian Temple tomorrow afternoon. It is understood that the address will deal with recent arrests and persecutions of seventh-day observers in Oklahoma and other States for failure to observe the religious Sunday, which has the support of the law in many States of the Union, and on behalf of which a measure applying to the District of Columbia is now pending in Congress, having been introduced in the Senate by Senator Jones, of Washington, on April 20.

UNUSUAL COMMOTION CAUSED AT 428 9TH ST.

Crowds Swarm to Take Advantage of Unusual Offer.

All eyes are directed toward the store of Friedlander Bros., 428 Ninth street northwest, where there is now in progress one of the greatest sales of "odd trousers" ever launched by this firm. The range of fabrics, shades, and styles is so great that it is possible to match almost any odd coat, the result being practically a new suit at less than the usual cost of the trousers alone.

These are the phenomenal prices which govern this sale: Trousers worth up to $20.00, now $1.50; trousers worth up to $25.00, now $2.00; trousers worth up to $30.00, now $2.50; trousers worth up to $35.00, now $3.00; trousers worth up to $40.00, now $3.50. Fabrics include worsteds, cassimeres, chevots, blue and gray serge, etc. Every size is in the lot, as well as practically every shade and weave. Men who would share in these remarkable values would do well to make their selections at once, as this sale cannot last long, notwithstanding the large number of trousers offered. Bear in mind the name and address—Friedlander Bros., 428 Ninth street northwest.—Adv.
